

AIMBE CoS Benefits	Council of Societies (CoS) Member	FoNIBIB Member
Access to advocacy letter writing campaigns and resources (e.g., how to call your lawmakers)	✓	✓
Receive periodic CoS communications (e.g., newsletters and email updates) regarding advocacy and science policy news	✓
Sign onto CoS coalition letters and public statements urging lawmakers to advocate on a range of topics related to science and biomedical research	✓
Invitations to attend virtual advocacy and science policy webinars led by AIMBE staff	✓
Receive consultations from AIMBE staff on planning advocacy activities and strategic decision-making (e.g., drafting of society statements) if needed	✓
Receive assistance with scheduling congressional visits in Washington, D.C. with your elected lawmakers	✓
Invitations to CoS advocacy fly-in events in Washington, D.C. to participate in congressional briefings and office visits organized by AIMBE to support science and biomedical research	✓
Receive one complimentary registration for a society representative to attend the AIMBE Annual Event in Washington, D.C.	✓
Access to in-person educational and advocacy training opportunities (e.g., workshops, symposia, and plenary sessions) led by AIMBE staff at your society's annual conference(s)	✓
In-person networking opportunities/receptions open to AIMBE Fellows, Emerging Leaders, and appointed representatives during your society's annual conference(s) and AIMBE's Annual and Regional Events	✓
Appoint representative(s) to attend closed-door meetings between society leadership to discuss shared policy priorities and engage in strategic planning around shaping national initiatives during the AIMBE Annual Event and on an ad-hoc basis	✓
Appoint representative(s) to attend in-person AIMBE roundtables with invited world experts from academia, industry, and government to discuss priorities and issues related to biomedical R&D, manufacturing, and regulatory affairs	✓
Nominate individual(s) for election to the AIMBE College of Fellows, a process typically limited to active AIMBE Fellows	✓
Friends of NIBIB (FoNIBIB) Benefits: *Priority Consideration is Given to CoS Members for Space-Limited Coalition Activities	Council of Societies (CoS) Member	FoNIBIB Member
FoNIBIB activities and NIBIB-related news.	✓	✓
Sign onto FoNIBIB letters and public statements urging lawmakers to support NIBIB	✓	✓
Involvement in educational and outreach initiatives to increase public awareness about NIBIB research activities and their impact on human health	✓	✓
Participate in FoNIBIB meetings that engage in strategic planning and decision-making around supporting NIBIB priorities	✓	✓
*Invitations to FoNIBIB advocacy fly-in events in Washington, D.C. to participate in congressional briefings and office visits organized by AIMBE to advance FoNIBIB goals and objectives	✓	✓
*Participate in technology demonstrations, laboratory tours, and grantee presentations during NIBIB campus visits organized by AIMBE	✓	✓
*Invitations to attend meetings between NIBIB leadership and FoNIBIB representatives to discuss the latest advances in biomedical imaging and bioengineering research, upcoming research priority areas, and future initiatives	✓	✓