

Member Benefits	CoS Member	FoNIBIB Member
Access to Congressional letter campaigns and advocacy resources	✓	✓
Newsletters and timely updates on advocacy and science policy news	✓
Join sign-on letters to lawmakers and public statements advocating for science and biomedical research	✓
Attend virtual advocacy and science policy webinars led by AIMBE	✓
Consultations from AIMBE on planning advocacy activities and strategic decision-making (e.g., drafting of society statements)	✓
Assistance scheduling congressional visits in Washington, D.C.	✓
Invitations to advocacy events in Washington, D.C. to support science and biomedical research	✓
One complimentary registration for a society representative to attend the AIMBE Annual Event in Washington, D.C.	✓

In-person advocacy training opportunities (e.g., workshops, symposia, and plenary sessions) by AIMBE at your society's annual conference	✓
In-person networking opportunities/receptions for the AIMBE community during your society's annual conference and AIMBE events	✓
Closed-door meetings with society leaders to discuss shared policy priorities, engage in strategic planning on shaping national initiatives	✓
In-person AIMBE roundtables with invited experts to discuss science and biomedical research priorities	✓
Nominate individual(s) for election to the AIMBE College of Fellows (a process typically limited to active AIMBE Fellows)	✓
Friends of NIBIB (FoNIBIB) Benefits: *Priority Consideration is Given to CoS Members for Space-Limited Coalition Activities	CoS Member	FoNIBIB Member
Receive regular communications (e.g., newsletters and email updates) regarding FoNIBIB activities and NIBIB-related news	✓	✓
Sign onto FoNIBIB congressional letters and public statements urging lawmakers to support NIBIB	✓	✓

Involvement in educational and outreach initiatives to increase public awareness of NIBIB's research activities and impact	✓	✓
Participate in FoNIBIB meetings that engage in strategic planning and decision-making around supporting NIBIB priorities	✓	✓
*FoNIBIB advocacy fly-in events in Washington, D.C. to participate in congressional briefings and Hill visits advancing FoNIBIB goals	✓	✓
*Participate in technology demonstrations, lab tours, and grantee presentations during NIBIB campus visits	✓	✓
*Attend AIMBE-facilitated NIBIB leadership meetings to discuss the latest advances in biomedical imaging and bioengineering research, upcoming research priority areas, and future initiatives	✓	✓